COMTEC PRESENTATIONS secure TUC conference 2009

20-08-2009 Manchester, UK – Comtec Presentations have been confirmed as the Union's choice by securing the event production for the annual Trades Union Congress for 2009 .

The TUC account has been held by the Manchester based company for twelve consecutive years, and in 2009 was joined at Comtec by the National Union of Teachers conference which was held in Cardiff this Easter. Both high profile conferences feature heavily on national television with TUC being shown live on the BBC Parliament channel and being made available for streaming online. In the past, TUC has attracted high profile speakers such as Gordon Brown and Tony Blair.

This year the congress is to be held at the BT Convention Centre, Liverpool starting 10 am, Monday 14th September and running until Thursday 17th September 4pm.

'With our annual Congress being a high profile event it is of great importance that we work with a company that can deliver in high-pressure situations' stated TUC Senior Events Officer, Keith Faulkner .
'After working with Comtec for over ten years they have proven themselves, time and time again to be capable of providing a package that is ideal.'

Amanda Gilmour, Account Director at Comtec added, 'It is a pleasure to work on TUC for the 12th consecutive year and we are sure this will be the most successful congress to date.'

Furthering on their TUC success story, Comtec have secured a place on the Business Link Yorkshire roster for event production, six months after being appointed to the Business Link North West roster. Business Link is a government initiative that strives to help businesses with advice and events held to assist small to medium businesses grow. Appointment to the roster is a boost for the company and reaffirms Comtec's successes in 2009.

Comtec Presentations, who have plans to move into a state of the art eco3 £1 million premises in North East Manchester by the end of the 2010, are delighted to be the 'Union's choice' again.

About Comtec Presentations

Established in 1982, Comtec Presentations have an unrivalled history in providing marketing solutions to an exceptional range of clients. From multinational corporations to political parties, they've helped arrange the biggest and the best deliver their messages with clarity, flair and precision. Comtec's core business is live events, but within the field their work is diverse with clients ranging from BAFTA to the Turner Prize, the Typhoon Launch to the Trades Union Congress.

Comtec Presentations are a marketing communications solution provider. In 2007 they celebrated their 25th Anniversary with three momentous events: in June they organised the HRH Launch of the first Astute Class Submarine for BAE Systems. This event included a party attended by 7,000 people with three live bands and catering - all in a nuclear facility. In September, for Gordon Brown's first and Comtec's tenth consecutive year, they produced the Trades Union Congress. In December they were the company entrusted with producing The Turner Prize, live on Channel 4, for its first ever visit outside of our nation's capital, and the first event in Liverpool's year as Capital of Culture 08.
